● MET DEPLOYS MORE ARMED OFFICERS IN WAKE OF MANCHESTER ATROCITIES
● LONDONERS URGED TO REMAIN ALERT

'WE ARE DEADLY SERIOUS'

By Rudi Abdallah

waltham@yellowad.co.uk

RESIDENTS in east London and Havering will see more armed officers on the streets following the alleged terror attack in Manchester on Monday, May 22.

The Met confirmed to the Yellow Advertiser that armed police will work with 'neighbourhood and specialist colleagues' in a variety of operations.

A spokesperson said: "The public will see more armed officers, working alongside their neighbourhood and specialist colleagues on proactive operations and targeted patrols, both on foot and in vehicles. Locations of their deployments, types of tactics and numbers on duty will continually change to be the most effective and to avoid predictability."

The spokesperson was unable to comment on whether the army would be deployed in east London or where armed officers would work specifically.

The spokesperson stressed the Met is 'reaching out' to 'all communities', especially those 'feeling vulnerable', to stop those who try to 'undermine society'.

They said: "Terrorists have a clear aim, and that is to create discord, distrust and fear. The police stand with all communities in the UK and will take action against anyone who seeks to undermine society, especially where their crimes are motivated by hate.

"We are also reaching out and engaging with all communities – particularly those that may be feeling vulnerable at this time – across London to help reassure them. Hate crime against any group will not be tolerated."

Earlier on Wednesday, May 24, Commander Jane Connors urged people to 'remain calm but alert' and help 'protect the capital and thwart the terrorists who seek to divide us and undermine our way of living'.

The former Met Police Commissioner, Sir Bernard Hogan-Howe said in August his force 'wanted to show our determination to protect the public'.

"We are deadly serious about protection – we will never be complacent. That's why I'm increasing the visibility and number of armed officers on London's streets."

"The reality of having to deal with deadly attackers is you need firearms officers who will use force to stop those attackers. They are the ones who will run towards the danger. They are our heroes."

Specialist detectives are also involved in counter terrorism.

● PEOPLE were evacuated

ARMED: The Met and London Mayor unveiled a specialist unit of 600 police officers in August last year to help keep Londoners safe from a shopping centre in Barking after police arrested a man for allegedly attempting to obstruct a search under the Terrorism Act.

The suspect was stopped at around 10.20am on Wednesday, May 24, at Vicarage Fields. He was arrested for obstructing the search under the act and assault on police.

He was taken to an east London police station. A bag that he had with him was left at the scene and assessed by specialist officers. It was not found to be suspicious.

BIKER GANG: A still from a victim's helmet camera captures the attempted theft of his bike

POLICE have released footage of a biker gang believed to have committed a crime spree across Barking, Dagenham and Ilford.

Between Monday, April 17, and Tuesday, April 18, seven incidents were reported in the area, in which other motorcyclists were targeted by the bikers.

One of the victims captured footage of the incident using a helmet camera.

The incident took place on Roden Street, Ilford, at roughly 3.15pm on Tuesday, April 18.

The motorcyclist was driving on the street when he was surrounded by seven suspects on four mopeds, said police. The gang attacked him with a fire extinguisher, knocking him to the floor. They then tried, unsuccessfully, to steal his motorbike.

DS Dean Grafton said: "We are appealing for any information as to the identity and whereabouts of this gang.

"They are often seen in pairs on mopeds carrying a fire extinguisher to distract their victim, with a view to stealing their motorbike.

"If anyone has recorded video footage of the group, please contact us."

DS Grafton urged anyone with information to dial 07766 247747 or 101. Alternatively, call Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

ANCIENT AND MODERN: Children at St Edward's Primary during their Greek day Photos by Martin Dalton

Our big fat Greek day of fun

YOUNGSTERS at a Romford school travelled back to ancient Greece in a day of creativity and culture.

Year three pupils at St Edward's Church of England Primary let their imaginations dine on food of ancient Greece as they sculpted Zeus masks and crafted Trojan horses. They also learnt about early forms of medicine and the history of the gods.

Louise Hall, science curriculum team leader, said: "An incredible, inspiring and interactive day which was thoroughly enjoyed by all."

YA owner receives regional press award

THE YELLOW Advertiser received two accolades at an awards ceremony during Local Newspaper Week.

Editor Mick Ferris and chief reporter Charles Thomson attended the Society of Editors Regional Press Awards last week at the Marriott Hotel in London's Grosvenor Square.

Charles was highly commended in the weekly reporter of the year category after his investigation into a paedophile ring in Shoeburyness prompted Essex Police to reopen a 25-year old case.

In 2014 he discovered Essex County Council made 10 compensation payments that year for alleged abuse in its children's departments in the 1970s and 1990s.

The revelations prompted three whistleblowers to come forward with concerns over the way child abuse allegations, which they had direct knowledge of, were investigated in the early 1990s. Their accounts spurred Essex Police in March 2016 to launch a review of a 25-year-old child sex ring probe. The review is ongoing.

The judges described Charles's investigation as "a great example of public interest journalism."

They added: "His dogged determination shone through."

Editor Mick Ferris accepted an award for the YA's owner Sir Ray Tindle. Sir Ray, 90, received the Journalists' Charity Award for "outstanding contribution to journalism".

The ceremony heard Sir Ray started his first newspaper on a troop ship to the Far East during his time in the army.

He spent his £300

demob money buying the Tooting and Balham Gazette.

Today, he is the founder and chairman of Britain's biggest independently owned local newspaper group, owning more than 200 titles.

Accepting the award, Mick said: "Sir Ray has asked me to pass on his thanks and best wishes to everyone concerned."

"He feels very honoured to be given this award, especially in Local Newspaper Week, and I'm proud to accept it on his behalf."

Teenager is locked up for knife attack

A 17-YEAR-OLD from Dagenham has been sentenced to two-and-a-half years' detention after a knife attack.

The teen, who cannot be named because of his age, was sent to a youth detention centre on Friday, May 19 after stabbing the same victim on two separate occasions in the same day.

He approached an 18-year-old in High Street, Grays, Essex, on November 16 and demanding his bicycle. When the man refused the youth stabbed him in the leg, causing a minor injury. The victim rode home but returned to confront his attacker.

When he did the youth stabbed him in the chest and back, causing serious injuries.

The 17-year-old admitted a charge of causing grievous bodily harm at Basildon Crown Court. A charge of possessing an offensive weapon will lie on file.

Ofsted officials gave the school a "good" rating in three assessment categories, teaching and learning, leadership and management, and student outcomes.

It retained a previous rating of "outstanding" for behaviour, personal development and welfare.

The report praised heads of department and heads of year, as well as the number of students gaining places at top universities.

Teachers were praised for their ability to help students achieve their potential and the sixth form and sports academy were deemed to be of a particularly high standard.

Jo Tupman, acting headteacher, said: "This is testament to the relentless hard work and dedication from all members of the Barking Abbey family, including students, staff, governors and parents."

AYEW BEAUTY!

Andre and Sofiane wrap up season on a positive note for Hammers

GOALS: Andre Ayew and (right) Sofiane Feghouli scored for West Ham

Burnley 1-2 West Ham United Brian Jeeves reporting from Turf Moor

ANDRE AYEWS second-half header ensured West Ham United a rare victory on the road as they came from behind to see off Burnley in an end of season Premier League dead-rubber.

Following their London Stadium hammering at the hands of Liverpool a week previous, West Ham made three changes with Sofiane Feghouli, Robert Snodgrass and Angelo Ogbonna all given the nod by manager Slaven Bilic.

Nevertheless, there seemed to be a collective air of relief among the 3,000 travelling supporters, who were quite content to see the back of what has otherwise been a frustrating season.

Burnley, like the Hammers, went into the game safe in the knowledge that their Premier League status was assured for another term, the first time since 1970 that the Claretts had ensured back-to-back top-flight campaigns.

The Lancashire outfit were without highly rated central defender Michael Keane, who was still nursing a calf injury, while Ben Mee missed out with a shin problem.

Turf Moor had been something of a fortress to Burnley this season, with the Claretts winning 10 of their league fixtures there during the season, and Andre Gray should have perhaps put them on the way to another success, passing up an early opportunity after finding some space behind the visitors' backline.

Meanwhile, Burnley goalkeeper Tom Heaton made a smart stop low to his left, denying Feghouli an opener for the Hammers.

Sam Vokes was a whicker away from making a telling contact with Robbie Brady's pinpoint ball in, while James Tarkowski nodded over from close range as Burnley continued to ask the sterner questions. And with their next meaningful foray forward the home side took a deserved lead.

The unmarked Vokes arrived to side foot low beyond Adrian after Gray had scurried away and delivered from the right.

However, the home side's advantage lasted only four minutes as Feghouli read Ayew's neat flick to finish a fluent Hammers move, restoring parity although perhaps against the run of play. Soon after the Algerian midfielder should have done better, firing over as the visitors began to offer more of a threat in the final third.

But it was Burnley who finished the half the stronger with Gray unable to profit from Brady's excellent wing play; his cheeky back-heel drifting agonisingly wide of an upright with Adrian stranded.

Vokes nodded wide while Matthew Lowton and Brady were also off-target as the home side looked to start the second period with a flourish.

The contest became quite scrappy with both sides wasteful in possession and short of fresh ideas in attack.

But with just under 20 minutes remaining a goal came and it was West Ham who grabbed the advantage. Ayew was on hand to head into an empty net after Edimilson Fernandes's thundering effort incredibly rebounded off both the post and crossbar.

Having dominated much of the half Burnley were clearly shaken, and it could have got worse for the home side as Manuel Lanzini's dead-ball effort fizzed inches over with Heaton clutching thin air.

Ayew's late effort was blocked as West Ham finished strongly.

This victory, only their fifth on the road, will have at least given Hammers fans something to cheer about in what has been a hugely frustrating campaign.

Speaking after the match, Bilic said: "It's always nice to finish a season with a win or with a good performance, and we did both today."

"We deserved to win. We knew that we were going to have problems when they are playing that straightforward."

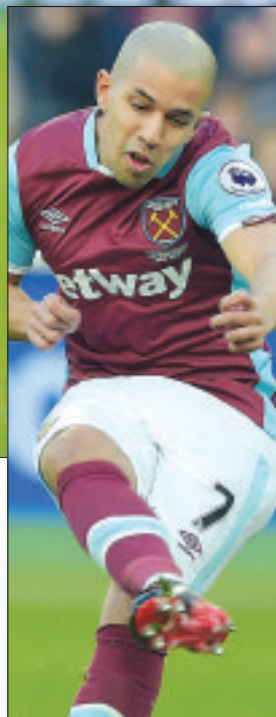

"We wanted to finish positive and we deserved to beat them. It is always nice to win the last game and I'm really pleased for the guys."

"We thought we were going to do better, we had so many obstacles, so many injuries, so many surgeries, eight, which is not usual."

"The move to the stadium, which is the best thing the club has ever done long-term, it took us a while to settle. You need time."

"It is very hard to get that Upton Park feeling but it is going to get better and better."

"Today we showed character. We finished 11th and are one point from being eighth. It is not a season to talk about, to hail it, but it is not a very bad season.

"I'm expecting it to be better next season, of course."

Burnley boss Sean Dyche said: "This is a small negative in a positive season."

"The game should have been out of sight for us at half-time, we had enough chances but they were the better team in the second half."

"It is a big achievement to stay in the Premier League and we have done that."

Harrison named new United boss

By Brian Jeeves

AMBITIOUS Essex Senior League outfit Basildon United have appointed Marc Harrison as their new manager.

Harrison, who led the Bees' local rivals Basildon Town to a ProKit UK Essex Olympian League and cup double, links up with the Gardiners Close club along with assistant, Liam Wallace.

Speaking to Yellow Sport, Harrison said: "Everybody believes that Basildon United is a sleeping giant in the footballing community. We want to get the players in, we want to give everything for Basildon. We want this place to be loved and the people to come through the turnstiles to see what we are about."

"If we can give the supporters positive energy, hopefully, that will spread through the town and we will get noticed."

Ryman League Division One North outfit Aveley invited members of the media to their new £4.8million Parkside ground which is under construction, and could help the ambitious Millers to new heights within the non-league pyramid.

Having moved out of their 65-year-old Mill Field ground, Aveley's 3,500 capacity stadium has covered accommodation for more than 1,100 spectators, a 3G pitch, as well as fully floodlit seven and nine-a-side facilities to house the thriving youth section which provides football for children between the ages of four and 18.

The Millers hope to move into their new ground in late July, and it is clear that the club are providing Essex football enthusiasts and their community with a terrific facility.

"We would like to be playing National League South football in the next three to five years, marketing and press manager Jamie Manktelow told Yellow Sport. "Our initial aim is to have the academy up and running. That's coming in September."

"The local public and press have shown a great deal of interest in the project. We've also had a significant rise in season ticket sales. We are looking to get the stands and perimeter fences sponsored. People are recognising that Aveley has a football club, they are taking notice that we exist which is great news."

Aveley's attempts to construct a new stadium have been thwarted seven times over the past 20 years. The Parkside project should bring an upturn in fortunes for one of the county's popular semi-professional clubs.

Braintree Town have announced a pre-season fixture with Sky Bet League Two outfit Barnet at Cressing Road. The North Essex side, who parted company with manager Hakan Hayrettin following relegation from the National League's top flight, will face the Bees on Tuesday, July 25 (7.45pm).

The Iron have also arranged a warm-up game with Ryman League Division One North club Bury Town. The game will take place at the Suffolk side's Ram Meadow ground on Tuesday, July 18 (7.45pm).

Ryman League Division One North outfit Grays Athletic have announced their season ticket and player sponsorship details ahead of the 2017/18 campaign. Grays, who will play home matches at Aveley's new Parkside ground, are hoping to bounce back following relegation last season, with junior fans able to watch every league match for just £10.

Grays have announced some pre-season fixtures: Tuesday, July 18, Hullbridge Sports (A) 7.45pm; Tuesday, July 25, Tilbury (A) 7.45pm and Tuesday, August 1, VCD Athletic (A) 7.45pm.

Ryman League Division One North outfit Heybridge Swifts have a number of eye-catching pre-season fixtures. The Scraley Road side narrowly avoided relegation last season, but are keen to push on by arranging some testing warm-up games with Sky Bet League Two club Barnet, along with local rivals Chelmsford City and Billericay Town all paying a visit.

The full list of Swifts home fixtures is as follows: Saturday, July 15, Barnet (3pm). Tuesday, July 18, Chelmsford City (7.45pm). Tuesday, July 25, Billericay Town (7.45pm). Tuesday, August 1, Enfield Town (7.45pm). Saturday, August 5, Thurrock (3pm).
